Sex is about celebrating who we are, what we inspire and everything amazing in the world that only exists because we are together. It's an intersection of our lives surrounded by pillow fights and giggles as well as intensity and the deeply satisfying pleasures of a D/s relationship. This book is a collection of moments from within that union. Moments ranging from vanilla to kinky that have been distilled down to little details that don't take long to read, but will take a long time to forget. Appendices include a sample interview and a few questions answered.
