Whyte Island: Part 3 C M Ward

Transformed by greed and inhumanity, the world of today has become an Orwellian monstrous planet except for the small haven of Whyte Island. Here, the islanders possess and live peacefully by their deeply held, sacrosanct beliefs. Into this alternative, caring and uplifting way of life, they accept Andrew, a mainlander, to share their idyllic existence enabling him to experience his full sexual potential and then live with two exotic, liberating women.? But the mainland has some severe and cruel lessons to impose on the carefree Islanders... From living in an Orwellian world of deprivation and selfishness, Andrew is transformed by his introduction to the many sexual delights of Whyte Island. He meets in turn two liberating partners who indulge his most intimate and repressed needs and thus he experiences a new sort of freedom. But, unknown to him, the dark cloud from the adjoining mainland has a menacing shadow to cast over the islanders.
