Simply You David Wesley Anderson

140 character micro-poetry. Vivid thoughts translating for you at lightning speed. Many nights swimming between winter and summer. We find each other in the hidden folds of the universe. They speak of slivers of moments of time of notions lingering between you and I. Edged at our sides and outlined what we thought love was. Captivated by bright eyed statements and insistent red nails. Clouds flowers fingers electric. Between gasps we grasp at each other.
