Beautiful, young Sophia Davis is confident that her decision to marry Travis will lead her to eternal bliss, but when her new husband abruptly files for divorce, she is completely blindsided. With the whole world falling apart, what's a nineteen-year-old divorcée to do?

The answer for Sophia is simple: she picks up the pieces of her shattered heart and returns to BYU.

Hoping for a clean slate, she embarks on her freshman year again. But this time, Sophia has a skeleton in her closet, and she'll go to any length to protect her secret. As she reluctantly navigates a world populated by newly returned missionaries, sweet Suzie Homemakers, and serious students, she finds herself turning more and more to her home teacher Luke. As their friendship blossoms, will Sophia allow herself to trust again in the hope of a true happy ending?
