A valuable resource for agencies seeking to attain or maintain Medicare certification, HOME HEALTH ADMINISTRATION MANUAL provides specific, authoritative guidance for the successful administration and management of a home health agency. This comprehensive policy manual is also useful for agencies seeking accreditation from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO) or Community Health Accreditation Program (CHAP). Divided into two sections, Section I includes policies related to organizational leadership and performance, financial management, control of information, patient and staff safety, and human resources. Section II includes policies related to patient rights, patient assessment and care, infection control, and continuity of care.
