Never Get Lost Again Linda Grekin

More than 25 million have a terrible sense of direction. In this pioneering look at why people have trouble finding their way, Grekin unravels why intelligent adults, businesspeople and children get lost and what they can do about it. Fascinating interviews with people who share this problem, such as Joan Baez and Kenneth Blanchard, offer helpful insights. The author offers helpful suggestions on how the directionally impaired can avoid becoming disoriented or lost.
