The History and Archaeology of the Koguryo Kingdom (Early Korea Project Occasioinal)

This volume contains twelve studies on the history and archaeology of the Koguryo kingdom, which existed from the first century B.C. to 668, its territories encompassing the northern part of the Korean peninsula and much of southern Manchuria. The studies presented here were written by specialists in various disciplines, covering issues in Koguryo's political history, its archaeological remains, its mortuary system and tomb art, and its place in historiography.
