Not illustrated. 1872 Excerpt: ...and annual proceeds of the said trust moneys should at any time prove insufficient for the due and punctual payment of the said annuity, he directed that the same annuity, or so much as should from time to time be unpaid, should be charged upon the estate thereinbefore devised to his brother W. Ooit. And after reciting that by his marriage settlement a sum of £6000 had been settled on bis wife for life, and after her death for himself for life, and after the death of the survivor for such persons as they or the survivor should appoint, and in default of such appointment, for his own executors, administrators, or assigns, the testator declared that the annuity of £1200 was given to his wife in satisfaction of all interest in the said sum of £6000, and upon condition that she should execute a release of the said sum of £6000, so that the sum might become effectually vested in his said trustees, whom he directed to apply the same in augmentation and as part of the fund to arise from the residue of his real and personal estate. The testator then directed that his trustees should, by and out of the said trust estates, moneys, and premises, raise the sum of £10,000 for each of his six sisters, to be held upon the trusts therein declared; and as to all the residue and remainder of his said real and personal estate, whatsoever and wheresoever, not thereinbefore disposed of, he gave L. JJ. devised and bequeathed the same to his brother W. Gott, his 1872 heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, for his and their Allan absolute use and benefit. The testator died in April, 1867. William Gott, the residuary devisee and legatee, died in his lifetime. The present suit having been instituted by W. Allan, the surviving trustee, and his wife, w...
