The Bayfield Festive Apple Cookbook and Almanac

Every year in late September and early October, chilly air tumbles down from Canada and sweeps over northern Wisconsin, dabbing the vast, unspoiled Northwoods with frosty touches of orange, red and yellow, making each new morning as fresh as a splash of water. It's a truly magical time of year. With harvests, fairs and festivals, it's a time of indulgence before the long, hard winter ahead!

About this time the apples come into harvest on the Bayfield Peninsula of Lake Superior, specifically the town of Bayfield. There is truly nothing in this world as tangy, tart and delicious as a Bayfield apple!

Each year the Bayfield Apple Festival draws close to 75,000 people to this tiny hamlet on Lake Superior for a rejoicing of life, art, nature, and (of course) apples! The festival was voted one of Wisconsin's best and has been going strong for nearly forty years!
