The Buffalo Nickel Pat Johnston

Retirement? For LA homicide detective Moses McTierney, that was not the way it played out. After a body is found beside the highway near the small farming and mining community of Outcrop, Arizona, Moses finds himself involved in a mystery that will drag him into the very depths of evil. Torn between helping the inexperienced local cop and his own desires to live quietly on his orange orchard far from the stress of his past life, Moses gets drawn into murders and disappearances that will go back decades. The town and some of its residents hide secrets that slowly reveal themselves as the search for the owner of the buffalo nickel unfolds.
