They're anxiously stalling, waiting to see the results of the checks they're running on you. You know you hurt your chances of getting that loan when you had to admit those financial mistakes you made in the past. . You walk out of the office with that nervous feeling in your stomach. This is it. It's make or break. "We'll let you know" says the advisor. Inevitably, you know you're out of luck. But the mistakes have been made, and there's nothing you can do now, right? Wrong! Having an imperfect credit rating is NOT a permanent situation. If you've made financial mistakes in the past it's not too late to start repairing your credit today. When you've got the knowledge, those little hints and tips YOU NEED, getting your finances back on track isn't as hard as you might think. The next time you leave a loan advisor's office, you can be confident that you've got the money you need. www.selfcreditrepair.co.uk
