Bike at Your Own Peril Jack Affeldt

Harry James, a NYPD detective retired and moved to The Villages, Florida. After only a year, he was bored with reading mystery novels and wanted to solve a real crime. A woman, riding a bike on one of the golf cart trails in the huge retirement community, had an accident and died. The newspaper account was a little baffling so he called his detective friend and asked if he might look at the site of the accident. He found some clues, the case was reopened, and James led an investigation that found a suspect among several possibilities, and in the process almost got himself killed; so much for retiring to the easy life!
