Heartbreak, Trust, and Triumph! Camille Franklin thought she had the perfect life, with her handsome husband, Brian, and a rewarding career. But her perfect life is shattered one day when Brian announces that he wants to live the single life. Camille is devastated, completely taken by surprise by the announcement. With her life now an emotional roller coaster and her faith tested over and over again, she often wonders how she will make it through. And just as things appear to be looking up, tragedy strikes again, leaving Camille shattered into a million pieces. Is it possible for anything good to come out of this? Will Camille hold onto her faith in God or give in to the tragedies of life? Coming Full Circle is a powerful debut novel about a woman's journey through the trials and tribulations of life-and the faith that helps her persevere.
