Into White Randi Pink

LaToya Williams lives in Montgomery, Alabama, and attends a mostly white high school. It seems as if her only friend is her older brother, Alex. Toya doesn't know where she fits in, but after a run-in with another student, she wonders if life would be different if she were . . . different. And then a higher power answers her prayer: to be "anything but black."

Toya is suddenly white, blond, and popular. Now what?

Randi Pink's audacious fiction debut dares to explore a subject that will spark conversations about race, class, and gender.
