The Presidentialization of Politics: A Comparative Study of Modern Democracies (Comparative Politics)

The Presidentialization of Politics: A Comparative Study of Modern Democracies (Comparative Politics)

In this major new work, leading experts come together to examine the changing role of political parties and political leadership in fourteen modern democracies. As well as examining cross-national differences, The Presidentialization of Politics analyses how modern democracies are increasingly following a presidential logic of governance, through which leadership is becoming more central and more powerful, but also increasingly dependent on successful appeal to the mass public.
