Blood Thirst: An Eternal Romance Dormaine G.

Octavia, a human, appeared into this world with a mysterious past unknown to even her. Victor a cultured man of influential prestige was born a savage vampire. They should have never been but their attraction was so profound neither could deny their love. "Tell me to stop and I will." He came to stand in front of her after hearing no more words of resistance cross her lips. In a split second, he wished he could sire her and take her for his own. He wanted to tell her everything. This world, his world, about vampires, but he could not. Victor gripped her face within his palms. "I cannot let you go. I will not," he exhaled, caressing her lips. "But if you want me to, I will leave you be. Forever..." "This is madness..." Octavia gazed up at him speechless. She tried to resist him, but the words of refute would not flow. "And I cannot breathe when you are not near. I cannot think when you are not by my side. The last few days have been murderous knowing that I could not have you" He kissed her, not allowing her to refuse him. He would never let her go.
