Ravenwood Risen W. C. Maher

Chaos seems to be everywhere in and around the kingdom of Coloré. Talk of strange men and insane beasts occupies the speech from silver-tongued bard's tales to the gossip and banter in local pubs. Animals seem spooked, livestock is left mutilated, people are missing, and an overall ill omen hovers in the air. Yet, despite that, all seems so normal for Ephraim and Jules Ravenwood amid the mundane chores and predictable daily grind of being the oldest son and daughter of a farming family near the sleepy town of Crestfalls. Little did the two know that with this year's spring planting would come a sudden rush of mysterious evil culminating in the fulfillment of an ancient prophesy and a battle of cosmic proportions that would either set the entire world right or tear it completely apart. Only with courage, along with the help of their father and his "mysterious" friends, can they set the scales right and prevent total ruin.
