Grandfatherly advice to his grandchildren. 94 topics. Concludes - "There is only one thing in life that matters above all else - your own personal conduct. It is the only thing that you and you alone are fully responsible for. All else is of minor importance - mere froth and bubble! If you can remain steadfast and true to yourself while all around is uncertain and ever changing then you will have done well, and far better than me. I wish you good health, common sense and a sizeable chunk of luck. That should carry you a long way. Go well, my little ones."
