Enota was founded in 1996 and since 2002 the partner architects are Dean Lah and Milan Tomac. Enotas team of architects focuses on research driven design of the environment where study of contemporary social organizations and use of new technologies are interwoven to produce innovative and effective solutions. Their solutions are strongly influenced by research, reinterpretation and development of social, organizational and design algorithms that derive from nature. Projects include the NKBM Bank Branch in Ljubljana, the Terme Tuhelj Spa Resort in Tuhelj, the Ilirska Apartments in Ljubljana, the Sportina Headquarters in Radovljica and many others.
