LUNACY: A 1930's Southern Fiction Romance: Southern Secrets (Switched Series) (Volume 1) Kay Chandler

Advised by a quack doctor in 1915 that her unborn child is at risk for lunacy, a wealthy woman pays a midwife to secretly switch her baby with the newborn daughter of a penniless couple. Twenty-one years later, the truth's revealed in a Last Will and Testament and Harper Harrington is forced to swap places with Veezie, the rightful heir. Harper leaves the palatial home and moves to a rundown shanty in Goose Hollow, Alabama. But she soon discovers the unattached, young country doctor there has something far more valuable to her than the affluent lifestyle she left behind. However, to take it from him will break his heart. If he wasn't so stubborn, Harper could fall for a man like Flint. When Dr. Flint McCall learns Harper is secretly attempting to sabotage his plans, he's furious and begins a quest of his own. How could he have fallen in love with such a pig-headed woman?
