Rupert The Very Naughty Elephant Laura Brigger

Rupert is a very naughty elephant, he does not want to get out of bed, do his chores, eat his breakfast. He is naughty at school too. One day a new girl comes to school and she too is very naughty. Is she naughtier than Rupert? She throws fits, bullies her classmates and is mean to the teacher. Rupert sees her behavior and begins thinking about how he has been acting. In reviewing his choices he see how naughty he has been acting and decides to choose better behavior. Rupert has changed his behavior and how he gets good grades and obeys his mom. He also has friends now because his behavior has changed towards his classmates. Rupert reaches out in friendship with Ruthy and Ruthy decides maybe its not a bad idea to have good behavior. A book that helps children learn how to make better behavioral choices."Rupert The Very Naughty Elephant" helps to reinforce good behavior.
