Etude d' Elude: Memoirs in Poems and Prose, 2nd Edition Francesca Fondse

Etude d' Elude offers a collection of memoirs in poems and prose. If you, the reader, felt drawn to it - it will whisper to your soul . . . There are many life stories and many definitions, qualities and differentiations to love and life. This collection is offered on the assumption that it would voice and speak to readers of our individual as well as our collective desires. Of one humans' desire for another, and of collective desire for good and purpose in life! The Etude offers a rich and diverse collection of expressions, encapsulating three decades of the authors' life, which in a way form somewhat of an anthology; not because of a variation of writers, but because of the collective impressions left by an arrangement of actors within the play of a life? However you wish to read it, it will allow you to explore the constant yet changing seasons of growth within the times of the human heart.
