Sammie—a kickass kid fights for freedom.

“In Sammie Farroll, Dr. Elaine Brady has created a sympathetic character who expresses through the genres of poetry, short stories and journaling, the horrors of inhabiting a childhood marred by incomprehensible physical, psychological and sexual abuse. We journey with Sammie and cannot help but empathize with her intense, harrowing and compelling life trajectory. Hers is a spirit in search of healing, wholeness, renewal and autonomy. From an early age she clearly possesses an innate resourcefulness and as a result of being “forged in fire,” is bound to emerge as one fierce, kickass, compassionate, and gifted contributor to the world at large.”
