Introduction: "This book is entitled 'The Irish Wolfhound - The Great Symbol of Ireland' because its intention is not only to acquaint you with a great breed, but also to illustrate their significance as an important Irish symbol. Over and over again, the Irish Wolfhound symbol appears in literature, and art; his beauty and quintessential Irish characteristics of courage, humor, affection, and hospitality closely resembling the people of that country. Forever friendly, the Irish Wolfhound delights in human companionship, remembering family and strangers alike, even after a prolonged absence. In addition, he is clever and strong, and when necessary, fierce. Therefore, the Irish proudly regard the breed an appropriate emblem, considering their traits an asset to the national character. In essence, you will learn about the Irish Wolfhound, as a breed and as a significant symbol, how he became one, and what this means; and by doing so, you will also learn about the heritage of the Irish people themselves."
