The Roles and Motivations of Key Players in Bankruptcy Cases is an authoritative, insider's perspective on the responsibilities and liabilities of the various constituents involved in bankruptcy, financial restructuring, and reorganization proceedings. Featuring partners from some of the nation's leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through the intricacies of navigating the zone of insolvency, discussing the possibility of pre-bankruptcy reorganization efforts, the financial implications of Chapter 11 and Chapter 7 filings, and the role of the bankruptcy lawyer to both debtors and creditors. These top lawyers give tips on deciding between bankruptcy and out-of-court restructuring, recovering collateral, negotiating debtor-in-possession financing, and determining the appropriate type of reorganization for a company. Additionally, these leaders reveal their strategies for maximizing a client's value through restructuring, minimizing additional losses, and developing new strategies to accommodate recent changes in bankruptcy law. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this challenging area of law.
