Paddling the Boundary Waters and Voyageurs National Park (Regional Paddling Series) James Churchill

Voyageurs National Park and the Boundary Waters Canoe Area Wilderness together comprise some one and a quarter million acres of the wildest country in the United States. This nearly roadless region of lakes, bogs, and forests in northeastern Minnesota is a mecca for canoeists from around the world. Veteran paddler James Churchill guides readers to great paddling and camping destinations. Maps, detailed route descriptions, and a wealth of planning tips make this an indispensable guide for the modern voyager.

Features include:

- An overview of what to expect and how to prepare
- Detailed maps showing access points and routes
- Information on each waterway's character, difficulty, and the best times to paddle
- Lists of local paddling organizations and information resources
- Trips to thrill experienced paddlers and novices alike
- Historical importance and wildlife
