Raising Knights & Princesses in a Dark Age Robert Foster

Raising Knights and Princesses in a Dark Age creatively weaves touching stories with powerful advice. Robert Foster gives practical advice on how to raise your son or daughter to become a knight or princess today. Your children can learn to resist temptation and morally compromising situations. They can learn to have moral values and standards above those of the general populace. In doing so, they also, just as the knights and princesses of old, will serve as examples and leaders for others. They will lead their friends and become a blessing to teachers, students, and parents. This practical book will encourage and energize even the most exasperated parent or grandparent.
