Android 43 (Paradise Awakened) (Volume 1) Mackenzie Morris

In the technologically advanced, futuristic, underground city of Paradise, humans and androids are striving to recover from a second apocalypse. Tensions between the androids and their human owners quickly escalate, spurred by terrorist attacks and upheaval because of an android president. An archon, a winged defender whose purpose is to protect humanity from above the atmosphere, falls to Earth for unknown reasons. He loses most of his power and must blend in with the people in the city. Will he be able to find out why he fell and fight for the preservation of the human race? With a civil war brewing and the remaining human population facing invasion from the Imperial Galactic Reich, a small rebel group of humans and androids must band together in cooperation as what could possibly be humanity's final hope.
