The Case of the Running Bag: A Jonas Watcher Detective Adventure (Volume 1) Gene Poschman

I was just waking up. I could hear twelve midnight being chimed in the distance. I was cold, wet, and coming down from the DTs. I looked up and could see the underneath of a wharf above me.

And that was just the beginning.

Jonas Watcher had no memory of how he got there. As he started climbing up the ladder to the wharf, he found he was tangled in some sort of net. Suddenly something large and heavy dropped onto him and he fell into the bay still snared by the net, which had also captured the item. Luckily, the weight of it had tightened the net, so he was able to pull himself out of the water and climb up to the wharf.

After resting on the wharf, he examined the object and saw that it was a bag with latches. When he opened it, he found some things that propelled him into the middle of a mystery involving the robbery of a mob bank, a possible murder, blackmail, and a conspiracy involving sales of paintings.

It was San Francisco during the nineteen thirties; Jonas Watcher must solve The Case of the Running Bag if he wants to live.
