Trustology: The Art and Science of Leading High-Trust Teams Richard Fagerlin

Are your working relationships characterized by mutual respect, innovation, collaboration, healthy conflict, and an open invitation for feedback? Or have you experienced time and energy being wasted on turf wars, silo mindsets, suspicion, misunderstandings, and low employee engagement? In Trustology, Richard Fagerlin challenges readers to take responsibility for the one thing that determines the success of every business and interpersonal endeavor: trust. He casts a vision for high-functioning relationships, both personal and professional, and shares the three components necessary for trust to flourish. Finally, he gives leaders a simple four-step process to lead their groups into becoming high-trust teams. If you are ready to have your assumptions challenged, your sights raised, and your business or team shifted into high gear, Trustology was written for you. Includes a Trust Factor assessment for teams and individuals.
