From one of the oldest legal publishers in the country comes a new, fresh book for American prosecutors, law students and anyone who wants an insider's view of how justice is made. Nationally recognized trainer and former prosecutor, John Bobo offers an essential guide to why the role of storytelling is critical to effective advocacy as well as other lessons of legal jujitsu. Bobo gives readers everything from crafting a theme to battling defense attorneys, and working with judges and juries. Sections also examine how to recognize the symptoms of burnout and maintain a healthy work-life balance.
