Wave Me Good-bye (Home-Front Heroes) Teresa R. Funke

Based on a true story from World War II: As the only Jewish girl in her New York neighborhood, thirteen-year-old Miriam Liebler has a lot on her mind. World War II is raging, and her brother will soon pack his bags to join the fight. Blackouts and air-raid drills punctuate her daily life. Worse yet, her family has heard nothing from their Jewish relatives in Europe since before the war started, and Miriam fears the worst. Her friends don't understand her worries-until she meets Christopher Richards, an orphaned English boy whisked to America to escape the deadly bombings of London. Miriam and Chris exchange candy, comic books, and secrets through the iron bars of the orphanage fence. When Miriam's mother takes in a German-Jewish refugee and her daughter, Miriam becomes entangled in the woman's desperate search to find her family. Will her friendship with Chris survive when trouble brews? Readers, don't miss the last few pages to learn more about the real Miriam Liebler.

Phyllis Thompson:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring and can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
