The Magic of Watercolour

James Fletcher-Watson

The Magic of Watercolour James Fletcher-Watson

This is an introduction to the medium of watercolour. The author reviews the roots of the English watercolour tradition and takes a practical look at materials, subject choice, how to paint landscape, weather conditions, buildings (with advice on perspective) and different methods and techniques for composing paintings and using colour. The author's own paintings, including many stage-by-stage series, complement the text. The book will appeal to watercolour painters of all levels.
