Excerpt from Martin's Boston Stock Market; Eighty-Eight Years, From January 1, 1798, to January, 1886: Comprising the Annual Fluctuations of All Public Stocks and Investment Securities; Government, State, City, Bank, Railroad Shares and Bonds; Insurance, Manufacturing, Gas-Light, Mining, and Miscellaneous, With the Semi-Annual Dividends Paid by Each

Matters of historic value, in reference to the times passed through, are given in the first forty-one pages of the work, and cannot fail to be of value. Pages 42 to 60, under the heading of The Course of the Boston Money Market, will be found of special interest, as in a great measure presenting a history of the times during the period covered; and for the sixteen years prior to 1886, the details are made very full, in view of the direct influence the condition of the finances always has upon the general prosperity of the country. On pages 120 to 122, under the head of United States and state securities, is presented an interesting record of the issues of government bonds, following which a full detail is given of the remarkable reduction in the enormous debts of the Rebellion, presenting a record unparalleled in any other country of the world.
